

Scholarship Application to Conococheague Audubon Society

The Conococheague Audubon Society promotes the conservation of wildlife and the environment by appreciating, studying, and observing nature. The society invites applications from individuals and groups who seek scholarship support for educational activities in keeping with its mission. Special consideration will be given to persons who wish to defray the costs of conservation workshops, ornithology conferences, or Audubon Leadership Camps. Scholarship requests should not exceed $250 and will be reviewed on a rolling basis. For consideration, the following form must be completed in its entirety.
